

I protest the federal government's attempt to dilute Indiana's don't call list. Being on this list has afforded me peace and quiet in my own home without being prey to unwanted phone calls. Hands off feds.